Acus snys: It is well known to the citizena of this community that for some three years past an old fend has existed between Henry Watson and his two sons, and the three Sinyard brothers. They have had difficulties during the past three years, in one of which Andrew Sinyard was shot in the arm by Henry Watson. In time the wound in the arm healed, but the old emise of the quarrel would return periodically. We are in-formed by neighbors that when sober they would settle their difficulties and promise never to refer to it again; but formed by neighbors that when soher they would settle their difficulties and promise never to refer to it again; but so soon as they would try to rebury the past in a glass of whiskey they would commence to "talk it over" in a calm, friendly manner, when a fight was sure to ensue unless prevented by friends.
